

Resident

Press Release – Resident at New York Design Week

Fast growing New Zealand design house Resident is set to release its sixth collection of Furniture and Lighting at New York Design Week 2016. The exhibition entitled “Windows Watching” will feature a number of progressive and innovative pieces designed to add value to the places where people live, work and play.

New releases include:

Odin Chair by Jamie McLellen
Volley Chair by Jamie McLellan
California Chair by Simon James
Echo Spotlight by Flynn Talbot
Echo Pendant by Flynn Talbot
Midnight Pendant by Resident Studio
Interstellar Dining Table by Resident Studio

This collection is the continuation of Residents ongoing commitment to world leading design, bold materiality and exceptional fabrication.

Date: 14th - 17th May

Location: Booth 1444, Jacob Javits Centre

Opening Hours: May 14th and 15th 10am - 5pm, May 16th 10am - 6pm,

May 17th 10am - 4pm

Press Contact: francesca@resident.co.nz

Resident was established in 2011 by Simon James and Scott Bridgens, as a vehicle for taking New Zealand design to a worldwide audience. Resident works with a select group of designers from a diverse range of fields including architecture, industrial design, sculpture, technical lighting design and furniture design. The company has offices in Auckland, London and Los Angeles.